JURORLiana Bennett

Liana was born in Rhyl, North Wales in 1948. At the age of six, her family immigrated to California where she began her passion for drawing as a young child. Her art career began early while in high school where she illustrated workbooks and painted backdrops for plays, all the while selling several of her paintings on the side. As a result, Liana won a scholarship to Chouinard (California Institute of the Arts) from Walt Disney in 1966. She then started doing large abstracts for an interior designer, continued her studio work and commissioned portrait work. Nine years later she began teaching acrylic painting to students.

After traveling North to visit relatives, Liana fell in love with the Northwest and chose to move to Bothell in 1983. Within a year she started her own art center called, “Arts Umbrella” and began teaching acrylic and oil painting, along with ten to twelve other artists. “Arts Umbrella” is still a thriving arts center after 35 years in Bothell and is now located in Kenmore, WA.

Liana has won various awards throughout her career. She was accepted into the Oil Painters of America national and regional art shows in Scottsdale and Kirkland. Her paintings have appeared in several publications including “Best of Acrylic Painting” and “100 Best Northwest Artists” Liana has many paintings in private collections and has juried several State Wide Juried Shows in Washington.
